Patrols three miles from enemy retreating NAKTONG RIVER FRONT

Tokyo, August 10. United States forces smashed to within three miles of Chinju on the Korean South coast today, hurling the Red troops into chaotic retreat. North Koreans were throwing down their weapons in panicky flight toward burning Chinju.

The Korean Reds were believed to be caught in a giant trap sprung by the junction of the 5th and 35th Regiments at Panisong, 12 miles. East of Chiniu.

United States and South Korean troops were also steadily tightening their nooses around enemy bridgeheads on the East bank of the Naktong River forming the Western anchor of the Allied beachhead. The reinforced U.S. 24th Division pushed an estimated 4,000 enemy troops back into the Southern bulge of the Naktong with a three-prong assault against the main enemy beachhead.

Action on the Naktong River bulge front today shifted suodealy to the Southern sectorwhere North Karean troops of undetermined numbers began streaming toward a highway which leads toward Masan.

ON NEW GUINEA

The Hague, August 10. The Dutch-Indonesian deadlock over the future status of one-half of New Guinea-the other half is Australian-came officially into the open yesterday, when the report of the Dutch members of the mixed Netherlands-Indonesian commission was published.

The report said that transfer of authority over New Guinea to the United States of Indonesia would he contrary to the interests of the New Guinea speople.

After three months' study and investigation, the three Dutch members, in their 1,000-word report, Reclared that in the event of antexation by Indonesia, New Guinen's right of self determination would be virtually annulled. When Indonesia was granted sovereignty at the end of last year, the New Guinea problem was sholved for further discussions and the territory remained Dutch administration. Since then Indonesia has repeatedly affirmed her claims, which were opposed by the Dutch and the Australians.

Different views

The Dutch report was written after the drafting of a common document had proved to be impossible because the views of both groups were so different in principle that no solution acceptable to both could be if New Guinea remained under Dutch authority, there would always be the possibility of the right of self determination, as the Netherlands is bound by article 73 of: the United Nations charter regarding non-self-governing territories, the report said. It added that Indonesian authority, would mean considerable weaking of these guarantees becauser, ar part of the USI, New Guinea would lose her status as .a .non-soif-governing territory; " The report said that Indonesia herself belonging to the under-

Large Bamboo snake caught

Possibly the largest Bambon anake on record was /caught by Mr. J. D. Romer, FZS, in Macdorinell Road at about 11.45 pim. on Wednesday, " The snake was lying by the side of the road and was obviously handleapped by a tremendous, bulge-in-its body resulting from the last most it had taken.

On dissection, this meal was found to be a fully grown ratmore than six inches in head and body length.

The enake itself was 915. millimetres (three feet) in total length. Mr. Romer said that this is about four inches ·longer than the longest specimen recorded at the British Museum (Natural History) In a standard reference book published in 1943.

"Mr. Romer added that while Bamboo snakes are very poleonous, there appears to be no records of deaths from their bites in Hong Kong, and in all of the several human and domestic animal cases known to him, the wicting tigve recovered.

"The Bamboo snake or White-lipped Pit Vipor (Trimeresurus albolabris) is one of the Colony's most common venomous serpents. It is bright green in colour, and is closely related to the Hattiesnakes of the New World," said Mr. Romer.

Forty-nine graduates of the Nethorsole Hospital Nurses Training School received their cartificates from Sir Robert Ho Tung at a graduation ccremony held in the hall of the School yesterday afternoon.

The hall was packed to overflowing by guests and the nursing staff of the Hospital, who attended almost in full force. Nurses from St. John Ambulance Brigade, under the supervision of a sister from Queen Mary's Hospital, held the fort for them so the girls on duty could attend the graduation ceremony.

Tea was served before the the Reverend George She.

Mr. T.N. Chau, Chairman of the Hospital Committee, presided, and with him on the platform were Sir Robert Ha Tung, Lady Lo (wife of Sir Mon-kam Lo). Dr. F. Ashton, Miss M. Ward (Matron of the Hospital). Miss Lau Mei-yuk, and the Reverend George She.

Before calling upon Sir Robert to present the certificates. Chau said for various reasons the Nethersole Hospital had in the meant suggestion from a man past not been able to hold to graduation ceremony, First there was the gap caused by the war, 'and later the absence of the regular staff after the war years.

The deceased then picked up a coraper from the corner and made for Chlu, who dashed out of the hut in fright, with LI in pursuit. A little distance away, he saw that Li was closing in on him, and he quickly picked up something from the ground which turned cut to be an iron bar.

With it, he struck out at the deceased. In the short sculle that followed, Li was knocked down. Accused contended he had thus killed the deceased in self-defence. Defence counsel in the course of his closing address to the jury pointed out that there was no evidence of any trails of blood leading from the deceased's bed out of the doorway of the hut, if the prosecution's case was right He also told the jury that a room-mate of the deceased, when cross-examined by him, had disclosed that he had heard two men running out of the door. Bob Taylor good as Indian scout

The ingredients of a fairly good outdoor drama -action gun fights, Indian forays and beautiful scenic backgrounds -- are offectively combined in "Ambush", which brings Robert Taylor, John Hodiak and Arlene Dahl to Queen's and Alhambra screens.

The drama is of a wily scout employed by an Army post commander to lead troops to the capture of a marauding and murderous Apache renegade.

The European Assembly, meeting here this afternoon, heard with enthusiasm an implied suggestion that Mr. Winston Churchill should be called in as European Minister of War.

The proposal came in a speech by the former French Prime Minister, M. Paul Reynaud, who, referring to the Russian threat to Western Europe, declared, "We must have a Minister of War for Europe and give him the powers of a Minister of War.

"If you want one you will not have to look beyond this hall to find him," M. Reynaud added, looking in the direction of Mr. Churchill who smiled and then continued listening impassively to the speech on a head-set while many representatives applauded warmly.

AMERICA CALLS UN STRATEGY CONFERENCE

Lake Success, August 9. The United States today invited all members of the Security Council except the Soviet Union to a strategy conference late this afternoon to decide means of getting around Russian obstruction in the United Nations.

The Americans brought the East-West Asiatic issue into the open for the first time on Tuesday when they cited Russia by name as the power behind the Communist invasion of South Korea.

The United States then forced adjournment of the Council until Thursday and recommended that other delegations consult together to determine what steps can be taken to assert the authority of the Security Council in the event that the Soviet government continues its campaign to prevent its President from acting.

The United States telephoned invitations to all delegations except Russla, but including India and Yugoslavia, to attend a secret strategy conference. Among the proposals to be discussed were:

A BLEND OF THE

Washington, August 9.

Mr. W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's special assistant on foreign affairs, said today that as a result of his trip to the Far East he is confident that General MacArthur could block any Chinese Communist invasion of Taiwan. He said, "If it were attempted we would stop it."

Harriman, who had two conversations with . General MacArthur in Tokyo, told reporters at a Press conference that he was very optimistic about the ability of the United Nations forces to turn back the invasion from North Korea as well as to block any Chinese Communist invasion of Taiwan.

Mr. Harriman, however, declined to claborate his belief, declaring, "I have reported to the President and it is up to him to release my impressions."

Mr. Harriman said the United States did not intend to get involved in the Chinese civil war again. He said, "There has been absolutely no change in policy concerning Talwan" which was laid down in the President's declaration on

CHINESE ARRESTED MANILA

Manila, August 9. Making a sudden raid on a house in the heart of Manila's Chinatown, Philippine Constabulary investigators arrested 22 Chinese suspected of having been among a group brought into the country illegally by a smuggling 'ring recently:

Despite the Chinese' claims that they were old residents of the city and did not violate immigration laws, the 22 suspects were taken to Camp Crame for questioning when they could not show proper entry papers.

This was the first batch of Chinese arrested in the city since the authorities threatened to get tough if aliens failed to observe regulations for new registration | and payment of the 50-peso fee alternative propositions were recently enforced. Outstanding Japanese issue

London, August 9. A Conservative Member o Parliament asked the Japanese government and people today to take any action which lies in their power on the outstand-Japanese bonds, for the sake of improving Japanese relations.

Mr. Teeling rald that General Douglas MacArthur and Washington must be persunded to support Japanese, action on the bonds, at a time when Anglo-Japanese friendship is vital. He added: "Many people, both here and in America who think that Japanese bondholders are capitalist parasites, need to be told a few facts."

Mr. Teeling continued: "I am prepared_to _undertake a_propaganda mission, and, if necessary, to visit Japan and America without remuneration."

Mr. Teeling, who has travelled extensively in the Far East, said he had obtained the help of a public relations firm to ald in the campaign.-United Press.

Suggestions to annul Indo-Pakistan partition, cede Pakistarii territory to rehabilitate Hindu migrants and exchange populations to solve the minority exodus problem in East and West Bengal were fantastic, the Prime Minister, Pandit Nehru, told the Indian Parliament here today. Not only that but, if accepted, they "would mean the ruin of India and everything we have stood for"

The Prime Minister was replying to a debate on the Bengal situation with special reference to last April's Indo-Pakistan agreement on minorities.

The three suggestions were put forward during the debate by his ex-Cabinet colleague, Dr. Shyama Prasad Mookerjee (Independent), who denounced the April agreement as a fallure.

Several speakers, including some Congress . members supported Mr. Mookerjee's suggested 'exchange of population. Mr. Nehru sold that these three langer or from the political motive of creating trouble for the Government and of influencing the electorate in coming general

The Government would fight

Would mean war The first and second alternatives, Mr. Nehru sald, meant war with Pakistan which would solve no problem, least of all the problem of giving a sense of accurity to minorities. The third suggested alternative, the exchange of populations, could either be compulsory or voluntary. The Government would never countenance pushing out the Moslem minority in West Bengal, Although the Government was opposed to all ideas of exchange of populations, voluntravel for those wishing to Pereira, J. BATORY'S MYSTERY

New York, August 10. The United States Immigration Service was tonight trying to identify a "mystery" passenger aboard, the Polish liner Batory, whom the ship picked up at sea 100 miles out from New York.

He was "rescued" from a hired plone which he had brought down in the sea. A firm at Hackensack. New : Jersey, sald the missing plane was 'rented by a man who gave his name as Mr. Newton of New York.

The Batory said the man gave his name as Guillermo San Sebustlan, a tourist from Mexico City. But the Gdynia American Line said later it had received a second message from the master of the Batory, saving that the airman had identified himself as William Jesse Newton of New York, United States citizen with an American massport, numbered and Issued in Mexico City.

The Immigration Service was described as particularly anxious to learn why the flyer had lafided hood and why he first gave his name as . San Sebastian though

The Batory came into headlines In May last year when the German Communist leader, Gerhard Elsler, stowed away abourd her in New York harbour. British nolice boarded the Batory at Southinpton and prested Einler. Ho was released when the Lendon Magistrates' Court refused to grant the United States domand for his extradition. Router.

New Egypt insurance

.Cairo, August 9. marine insurers in Egypt.

Lloyd's policies clearly state. England for settlement and no some price comparisons: legal proceedings shall be taken to enforce any claim except in England where underwriters are alone domiciled and emry on Cold rolled ousiness."

The new bill, Egyptian official sources stated today, provides for Ingots the appointment of Lloyd's in Egypt of a representative who, in the name of that corporation before the Egyptian courts.

Another clause in the new bill provides that if insurance documents are written in foreign languages they shall be accompanied by Arabic translations to the satisfaction of the Egyptian Insurance Control Department.

Warning issued

Some weeks ago, it was reported that the Marine Underwriters' Association of Lloyd's had issued a warning that if the bill were passed, as then drafted (requiring all policies issued in Egypt to be in Arabic which would be regarded as the legal text) they would withdraw from Egypt and withhold marine cover, either direct or in the acceptance of re-insurance of Egyptian hulls, Nile barges and | m n pireraft.

. The Association pointed out, it was reported, that Lloyd's marine! policy was framed in special phraseology which had been fully tested in British courts and that translation into Arabic would be

It was learned here today that while British insurance compunies operating in Egypt would accept the provisions of the new bill, the altitude of Lloyd's 'had not yet been officially defined,-
